

The Hotel Group opens the Homewood Suites by Hilton Salt Lake City Draper

by Newsroom | Mar 7, 2017 10:58am

The Hotel Group opened the Homewood Suites by Hilton Salt Lake City Draper located in Draper, Utah.

The Homewood Suites by Hilton is located near the Salt Lake City Airport and attractions such as the Loveland Living Planet Aquarium, Rio Tinto Stadium, Hale Centre Theatre, Timpanogos Cave National Monument and Cowabunga Bay Water Park. The property offers guests access to skiing at Big Cottonwood and Little Cottonwood canyons, and is located near five other ski resorts.

The property's 121 suites are offered as either studio or one bedroom, and include fully-equipped kitchens with separate living and sleeping areas. Guests will be able to enjoy the property's complimentary daily hot breakfast, evening socials, Wi-Fi and grocery shopping services along with a fitness center, indoor pool and hot tub. The property offers conference space designed for meetings and social events, and guests will be able see the Wasatch Range space designed for meetings and social events, and guests will be able see the Wasatch Range of Mount Majestic from their suites.

"This property is a welcome addition to the Salt Lake/Draper Community and our robust portfolio," Lara Latture, COO of The Hotel Group, said in a statement. "The Homewood Suites by Hilton offers business and leisure travelers alike an affordable stay in one of the country's most sought after ski areas."

The Hotel Group currently manages and/or owns 38 properties in 11 states, representing 18 brands, and employs more than 2,000 people. Since its inception in 1984, THG has managed and/or owned 120 properties in 25 states, directed the design and construction of more than 40 new hotels and completed the acquisition of more than $185 million in private investment through the Hotel Group Opportunity Funds.